DATE: November 2, 1962

MEMORANDUM TO: John W. Brewer
Thomas McP. Brown
Charles Cole
Charles Naeser
Carl Walther
Donald Watson

SUBJECT: Ad Hoc Committee to Summarize the Facts in the Reichard Case

By now you have been notified of our appointment to an Ad Hoc Committee to Summarize the Facts of the Reichard Case.

I should like to schedule our first meeting, which will mainly be organizational, for Friday, 9th November, at 10:00 a.m. in the Faculty Lounge of the Law School (located on the 4th floor of Bacon Hall).

Please let me know (Extension 653) if you cannot be present at this meeting. Unless I hear to the contrary, I shall expect that all will attend.

Arthur S. Miller
Chairman Pro Tem

cc: President Carroll
Provost Colclough
Professor Roderic Davison
(Chairman of the Executive Committee)

Mr B-
Many thanks.

UNIVERSITY SENATE

October 30, 1962

To: Members of the Executive Committee
University Senate

From: James F. Davison, Acting Chairman
Executive Committee

Subj: Appointment of an Ad Hoc Committee to Summarize the Facts in the Reichard Case

At the request of the Chairman of the Executive Committee who wished to absent himself from this session, the other four members of the Committee met on Monday, October 22, 1962 to discuss the selection of a committee to carry out the wishes of the Senate stated in the minutes of a meeting on October 12, 1962 concerning the Reichard Case.

The following is the text of the motion:

"The Executive Committee appoint a special committee to summarize the facts in this case, and the replies made by the University to the AAUP on the draft AAUP committee report."

After some discussion, the committee selected seven names as follows:

Arthur S. Miller, Law, Chairman pro tem
John W. Brewer, International Law
Thomas McP. Brown, Medicine
Charles Cole, American Literature
Charles Naeser, Chemistry
Carl Walther, Engineering
Donald Watson, Economics

The full committee then considered the report of the four members and approved the above seven names.

James F. Davison
Acting Chairman
Executive Committee
